Consent and Release for Use of Photograph and/or Name

Consent for publication of my name, likeness, image, photograph, videotape, film, and statement.

I give consent to the Northborough Free Library, the Northborough Free Library Director (“the Library Director”), and their agents to photograph, film, or videotape me or my child, and to use photographs, digital reproductions, films, or videotapes containing my or my child’s image, with or without identification of my or my child’s name, and to quote or record and publish or distribute statements from me or my child(ren) for Library promotions, advertisements, publicity, and other purposes including flyers, newspapers, and website postings.

I grant Northborough Free Library, the Library Director, and their agents all rights to reproduce, edit, mix, distribute, and display publicly, including on the Internet, photographs, film, videotape, and statements of or by me or my child, and to prepare derivative works. I understand that the Northborough Free Library is not responsible for unauthorized duplication or use by third parties of such materials, including publication on the Internet. I also understand and agree that the Northborough Free Library has no financial commitment to me as a result of this consent and release. I expressly waive, release, and discharge the Town of Northborough, the Northborough Free Library, and their directors, officers, employees, agents, and volunteers from all claims, causes of actions, and demands that I or my child may have against them arising from publication, as described above, of my or my child’s name, image, likeness, or statement. This release is valid until revoked and applies to publication on multiple times and multiple uses of such materials. I understand and agree that the Northborough Free Library has no liability for any use of such materials made before the Library Director receives my written revocation.

Please print neatly.
